sident, I respectfully request not to talk on this amendment but on the amendment as it is amended.

PRESIDENT: All right. Now, Senator Dworak, do you wish to be heard on this amendment or on the full amendment? Senator Bereuter, on the full amendment or this amendment to the amendment?

SENATOR BEREUTER: Both, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: All right, I recognize you, sir.

SENATOR BEREUTER: I have a question for Senator Cullan or Senator Marvel. Just for the record here, because what you are doing in the amendment to the amendment is important to me, are you contemplating at any time during the legislative process adding the emergency clause to this bill?

SENATOR CULLAN: No, Senator, I don't intend to add the emergency clause.

SENATOR BEREUTER: Thank you very much.

PRESIDENT: Senator Koch, did you wish to speak to the amendment to the amendment or the amendment, itself?

SENATOR KOCH: To the amendment, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: To the amendment to the amendment?

SENATOR KOCH: Well, Mr. President, it appears obvious that this bill has been well greased and we should adopt the amendments, then we can speak to the whole subject which is somewhat confusing.

PRESIDENT: Senator Cullan wants to make an exception to it so that it does not apply to....

SENATOR KOCH: First of all, Mr. President, we should adopt the whole body of the bill because it is a new bill and, secondly, we should adopt the amendments to it. Then we can speak to it in totality. If I were the manager, that is what I would do.

PRESIDENT: Senator Barnett, do you wish to speak to the amendment in its entirety or to this amendment to the amendment?

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. President, I will speak to anything I can.

PRESIDENT: It might be more appropriate to vote this amendment to the amendment up or down so that we can talk about what most people want to talk about.

SENATOR BARNETT: Well, let me ask a few questions about the amendment to the amendment then of Senator Cullan.

PRESIDENT: Yes, sir.

SENATOR BARNETT: And, Sam, are we talking about the ones where you eliminate sections 1, 2, 3 and 7?

SENATOR CULLAN: No, sir, it is sections 1, 2, 3 and 7 of
